

Judi Saves the Day!

The sewing machine is on the desk behind me. And it's now going back into the cabinet. For many reasons: My sewing skills, a wonderful gift of many, many masks (thank you, Mariya) AND this absolutely insane video sent by Judi: Kay's tutorial on Making Your Own Face Mask. Protection vs. Perfection. You HAVE to watch to the end. It absolutely Made My Day! It's the Best Bit of News I've had in a long, long time. I hope for you, too.
